Leads to Ludka, Mehorter In '53 Campus Thunder

by Ken Hawman and Myra Seide

Heading a cast of forty in the '54 edition of Campus Thunder will be Delores Ludka and James "Sand" Mehorter, veteran performers from the Office of Campus Productions.

Del and Sand
OCP Oldtimers

Delores, who appeared in Campus Thunder '52, the Christmas Pageant '52 and the Spring play, "Petticoat Fever," will appear in her first starring role in the seventh edition of "Thunder." "Sand" played the male lead in "Petticoat Fever," portraying a frustrated radio operator in Greenland.

Making his third appearance as the traditional Genie of the show, who happened upon the campus straight out of Aladdin's Lamp, will be Bill Jones.

Thunder Plot,
Boy Meets Girl

Delores, portraying a small-town girl who travels to Hollywood under the guiding protection of her maiden aunt, (Pauline Scinto) encounters problems when she meets her movie idol, Sand, who turns out to be quite different than the boy she left back home (Dick Probst). The problems that arise because of the two men in her life and the complications that set in are the central themes of the extravaganza.

Glamorous Thunderettes
To Have More Numbers

The "Thunderettes," New England's most glamorous women, will be led by the adorable "Fifi," again played by Larry Bluth. Bluth and his gorgeous gals may not keep the "Stage Door John" standing in line, but judging from last year's applause, they will keep the audience enthralled. Because of their past popularity, the "Thunderettes" will do more than their usual routine.

Supporting the leading players will be the principals, Saul Goldwasser and Harold Nevins. Featured roles will be played by John Schaffner, Marie Colina, Bob Middlemass and Beatrice Nixon.

Technical Staffs
Announced

Choreography will be handled once again by Mrs. Charles (Cele) Rasmussen. Adeline Meath, veteran of many past "Thunder" shows will accompany, backed by Gus Meyers' Orchestra.

As in past years, words and music by Sime Neary, Steve Martin, Harry Ahlberg and Billy Robbins. Arrangements submitted by two new songwriters are also being considered to augment the present score.

Fred Mills Jr., Technical Director, will be assisted by Fred Whaley, and his staff will include Elaine Land, Clare Waldman, John Schaffner and Dick Bergman.

Other appointments include: Charles Rasmussen, Business Manager; James Quigley, Stage Manager and Program Chairman; Bertram Arthur, Publicity and Public Relations; Leo Muldoon, Cast Party Chairman; Charles Kellogg, Special Effects; and Dorothy Denes, Wardrobe Mistress.

UB Host To 1200 Guests; Open House Huge Success

by Gary E. Singer

The University of Bridgeport played host to more than 1200 guests last Sunday as the first annual "Open House" tour was conducted through the campus. Eight University buildings were inspected by groups of 10-15, led by student guides.

Members of the Board of Associates, faculty and staff were on hand at each building to greet the guests and provide information concerning the function and operation of the building.

The tour started at Cortright Hall, the main administration building, where President Halsey, Vice-President Littlefield, David W. Price, President of the Board of Associates, members of the Board of Trustees and other officials welcomed the groups.

From there the visitors were led to Fones Hall, Wistaria and Marina Halls, Bishop Hall, the Engineering-Technology Building, Westport Hall and concluded the tour at Alumni Hall, the Student Center Building.

Various displays were set up in the buildings to display student work.

Mr. Price, who sponsored the event and President Halsey said, they were pleased with the community's enthusiastic reaction and would plan on it as an annual project.

One of the highlights of the tour was the Tech Building where various laboratories and special equipment were inspected. Also high in interest for the visitors was the Fones dental clinic.

Arnold Receives 2 Seats On '53 Student Council

The Arnold College of Physical Education, University of Bridgeport, has two voting seats on the Student Council, by authority of a motion passed at Council's Tuesday morning meeting. They will hold these seats until the next Council election.

Writers Aid Fund; Publicity Handled By UB Journalists

by John Schaffner

Members of the public relations class are planning to work as interns for the Community Chest. They will assist in the Red Feather Campaign as part of their work for the course. Each student has been assigned a particular agency in the community and will work directly under its sponsorship. It is his job to carry on a diversified public relations program of his own, and to assist in improving programs that need alterations. He will also be expected to aid the various agencies such as the Hall Settlement Home, Sterling House and the Visiting Nurses Association by writing news releases for local publication and helping in the plan of their various publications and bulletins.

The student will work along with the respective public relations departments. If the agency does not have such a department, the student will be expected to set up recommendations for organizing one.

Most of the agencies need help during the campaign, but some are better organized than others and therefore a few students will have to assist by doing only what they are asked until they have proved their ability.

It is the hope of the journalism students that this plan will help them in training for future careers in the field.

Soc. Committee Elects 5 Officers; Plans For Future

The Social Activities Committee which controls all the University sponsored functions, held elections recently. The officers are: co-chairmen, Leigh Danenberg and Ray Czaplicki; recording secretary, Mary Ford; corresponding secretary, Joan Beaumont; and treasurer, John Brennan.

The committee discussed plans for the Christmas Ball, to be held on December 11. Dottie Marks was chosen general chairman.

Two other social events were outlined: the Sweetheart Dance and the Wistaria Festival.

Desire Money and Romance? Pots and Pans Hold the Answer

by Frank Cascella

An opportunity to apply academic knowledge garnered in social studies and perhaps meet the girl of your dreams and make a few dollars on the side, is being offered by the Vita Craft Corporation. A representative from the company will be on campus in the Central Annex, at 2:30 P. M. on October 21.

The old idea of hiring college boys to sell merchandise house to house was revived by the Vita Craft Corporation, a national organization, about five years ago. Emphasizing the "boy meets girl" angle, Vita Craft assumes that male college students will be attracted. The mixing of three common ingredients — selling, college men and unmarried girls — should result in a tremendous increase in sales.

Accompanying this outlook Vita Craft will offer rewards and scholarships to any UB student piling-up sales and commissions to all. Experience is not necessary, since each student employed will receive a complete sales training course.

POTS and PANS — no ROMANCE here — but very close to a lady's heart. Yes! these will be your merchandise. If it was good enough for Vita Craft's president, Klen S. Slough, who sold pots and pans himself when he was in college, it's good enough for you. (See Advertisement on page 4).

Dormitories Select Officers In Recent Elections; Lugg, Fanta and Cogan Chosen In Upperslax Dorms

Now that the excitement of the opening weeks has died down, most of the dormitories have found time to hold their elections for officers.

Each dormitory has chosen a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, social chairman and athletic advisor.

Marina Hall has elected Dick Lugg as proxy, while Marlene Fanta was victorious at Wistaria Hall. Other dorm presidents for the fall semester are Dolores Stehler, Southport Hall; Gwne Cogan, Seaside Hall; Bunny Hadad, Schiott Hall; Audrey Friedman, Linden Hall; Stan Silverberg, Park Hall; and Lenny Crystal, Trumbull Hall. Waldemere Hall has not yet selected their officers.

Singer New IFC President -- Council Admits New Fraternity

Gary E. Singer, Editor of the SCRIBE, and president of POC was elected president of the Inter Fraternity Council at its meeting last Thursday. Fred Mills (TS) was re-elected vice president; Abby Elstein (TE) secretary; and William Bevacqua (SPA) treasurer.

Mr. Peter LaPouch was chosen Faculty Coordinator.

Fred Mills was appointed to head a constitution revision committee composed of John Rossignol (SPA), Ray Czaplicki (ADO) and Gordon Robertson (DEB).

Sigma Omicron Sigma fraternity, formerly of Champlain College, was unanimously voted into the council on a temporary basis, pending approval and ratification of their charter by the administration.

The acceptance of this organization brings the total number of fraternities and sororities on the UB campus to twelve.

...Please Read...

As a general rule, a newspaper should never apologize to its readers for contents of the paper, except where a fallacy is reported. However, we consider this a special occasion and so we offer our apologies.

Contrast this issue of the SCRIBE with the first two of the year. Notice the glaring difference in the amount of space devoted to copy and the amount given to advertisements? Secondly, this a four page issue, as will many future issues be, compared to the six pages of the first two.

We bring this to your attention because only you can change this situation back to where it was a week ago.

The Student Council recently issued its annual budget allotments. The SCRIBE was granted approximately $1700 with which to publish 28 issues, a fantastically low amount of $61 per issue. In order to supplement this, we are forced to take in at least 90 inches of ads. As a result, copy must be cut to make room, the final product looking like the issue you are reading.

In the near future, a referendum will be held on the question of whether the student activities fee shall be raised from $6 to $8 per semester. We desperately urge you to vote YES for this increase, because then, and only then, can we bring you the calibre newspaper the University of Bridgeport deserves.

Support this increase and give a needed boost, not only to the SCRIBE, but to all other campus organizations as well. Two dollars is so little, but it makes a big difference.

Health Council To Meet: Plan Monthly Conferences To Solve Dorm Problems

The Student Health Council has set the month of November as a tentative starting date for meetings. It was announced today by Mrs. Doris Hoffman, chairman of the committee. Meetings will be held the third Tuesday of every month.

The aim of the council is to coordinate all services that effect the health of the student and personnel. Members of the council include President James Halsey, Dr. Henry W. Littlefield, Dr. David A. Field, Dr. Alfred Wolff, Dean Martin P. Jayne, Dr. Donald W. Kern, Mrs. Jane Kondratovich, Mr. Floyd Brewer, Mr. Herbert Glines, Miss Martha Buell, Mr. William Nowlad and Robert C. Levine.

This year, as in the past year, the Student Health Council will try to solve problems concerning dormitory hours, student illness (mental and physical), and food problems.

No A-Z Column This Week

Sorry, but due to lack of space dormitory hours, student illness cut the Alpha to Zeta fraternity column for this issue. However, it will be back at its usual location next Thursday. Also announcements for all meetings should be handed in to Campus Clock before Wednesday.

The University of Bridgeport was founded in 1947. Up until that time the Seaside Park campus had been used by the Junior College of Connecticut which was absorbed by the new University. In November of that year the school fielded its first basketball team, a team that went on to win 14 games and lose only 6.

Since that time UB has had only one losing year and has amassed an over-all record of 87 victories and 54 defeats. In the past three years, with such greats as Lou Saccone, Gus Seaman and Dick LaBash leading the scoring parade, the Purple Knights have distinguished themselves on the hardwoods with a 53-24 slate.

This year the "greats" are gone; but there are still a few ball-players who are as good if not better than the fearsome trio. Why, then, does UB keep playing only the second and third rate teams?

Don't jump to conclusions and say we do it so that we can preserve our record. Two years ago Bridgeport had a 21-7 season and was ranked fifth in New England, topping schools such as Dartmouth, Harvard, Wesleyan, Trinity, UM and Rhode Island. If we were ranked over them, it stands to reason that we could have beaten them.

Then, why? It's not that we're afraid of them; they're afraid of us. They're afraid that they will lose prestige if a small school such as UB should ever beat them. They're afraid that they will lose their national ratings, which, by the way, in most cases are no higher than ours.

That is why the University of Bridgeport cannot break into the big time.

IN CASE ANYONE'S INTERESTED DEPT.

New Haven State Teachers College, whom the Purple Knights meet Saturday, is one of two teams remaining on the UB schedule from the 1948 slate. The other is Hofstra College.

UB's football record since 1948 is 20-22-2.

Arthur "Red" Kleinberg, just returned from Israel where he helped the United States basketball team win the worlds championship in the annual Maccabean game.

Joe Albany and Tim Ryan are running the intramural program.

The football team needs 51 points to get over the low scoring season of 1952.

Of the five games played to date between Bridgeport and New Haven, three have ended in shutouts, the Purple Knights turning the trick twice.

IM PREDICTION

Callahan AC and Park Hall will fight it out for their league title in intramural football, while the Yankees of UB-SPA will walk over the opposition in the fraternity division and eventually win the playoff.

Knights Meet NH At Elm City Sat.

by Mickey Vall

Bridgeport's Purple Knights will be trying to make it two wins in a row when they face the New Haven State Teachers College at New Haven Saturday. The Knights' record now stands at 2-2.

New Haven, perennial favorites and perennial losers to UB will be trying for their second victory in a series that dates back to 1948. In last year's contest the Knights trounced the Owls 25-14.

As of the moment, New Haven appears to have their strongest club in years as they are undefeated and unscored upon in two games, having defeated Kutztown Teachers 38-0 and Brockport Teachers 18-0.

Coach Jess L. Dow lost 15 lettermen from his 1952 squad that won 5 and lost 3 but he has 18 returning veterans, centered around quarterback Bill Parker and end Jim McKeon. Parker completed 58% of his passes last year including 4 for touchdowns, three of them to McKeon.

Walt Kondratovich, UB mentor, will be at full strength for Saturday's clash against the Blue and White. Co-Captain John Anderson, who had his face severely cut against Adelphi is the only injury. This will leave the center duties up to Dave Deep against the Educators.

Against Adelphi, Kondratovich finally had the reserve power at the wings that he had sorely lacked all season. With the return of Ray Glatkowski he was able to alternate his ends giving them a much needed rest.

This rest was instrumental in winning as Joe Cirone who is making a strong bid for All-State honors picked up 106 yards and Dick Cipriani and Glatkowski both caught passes for touchdowns.

Kay To Coach Tankmen; All Positions Are Open

Walter "Kay" Kondratovich has been appointed swimming coach of the University of Bridgeport according to a release from the Athletic Department.

Although Kondratovich is still tutoring the football team swimming practice will be held regularly. Coach "Kay" stated, "All positions re open and will be based strictly on time trials."

Girls Sports Open As Soccer Begins

The Women's intramural sports program commenced October 9 with Linden Hall playing Southport Hall in a scheduled soccer game at Barnum Field. Schiott has been scheduled to play the victor of the game.

Seaside Hall played Wistaria Hall on October 12.

The Townies will play their first game shortly after the dorm tournament is completed.

An elimination tournament has been set up between the dorm and town students. Schedules will be posted at a later date.

Entrants for various soccer teams are still welcomed. For further information contact Joyce Donohue, Seaside Hall.

Purple Downs Adelphi 19-9 On Two First Half Drives; Aerials Set Up Three TD's

by Don Burke

After being driven to the turf in their last two encounters, Bridgeport's Purple Knights remounted and rode roughshod over the Adelphi Panthers last Saturday night at Candlelite Stadium by a 19-9 score.

The Knights, who had not seen touchdown valley in their last 100 playing minutes, wasted little time in breaking ground against the visitors as they scored two touchdowns in the first two quarters. This was all that was needed to plant daisies in the Garden City plot and uproot the game for UB.

A Dick Gianisello to Joe Cirone pass highlighted an 85 yard drive by the Knights with Ralph Consiglio carrying over from the 5 for the first Bridgeport score. Five minutes into the second period UB came storming back with a 65 yard drive and another score via a 10 yard, Gianisello to Dick Cipriani, touchdown pass. However, the Panthers did make it a contest when Charley Finger broke loose for 15 yards and a touchdown after his mates had set the stage by marching deep into Bridgeport territory.

A safety put the game within grasp for the Long Island squad until Don Ardito passed 6 yards to Ray Glatkowski for the crusher.

Booters Defeated By Albany ST 3-1, Belmont Scores, Hurt, Slofkin Injured; Travel To Fort Schuyler Saturday

Playing their first game since 1950, the University of Bridgeport's soccer team was defeated 3-1 by Albany State Teachers College last Saturday at Albany, N. Y. The lone UB marker was scored by Co-Captain Mike Belmont.

For three quarters the Purple Knights held their own and going into the final period the score was knotted at 0-0. Midway through the fourth session Belmont pushed a 15 footer past the Albany goal. Earlier in the game, the Knights had a marker called back when Gordie Cochrane's close-up boot was in the nets but not seen by the referee and was pushed back out by the goaltender.

Within a minute after the UBooters had taken the lead, Albany had tied the score and in another two minutes had scored two more goals to wrap up the game. Albany scored all three of their goals after the Bridgeport goalie, Wally Slofkin was kicked in the chest and forced to leave the game.

This Saturday the Knights will travel to Fort Schuyler, New Jersey to take on the army post. Except for Belmont, who hurt his arm in the opener and Slofkin, the team is in fine physical shape and has been drilling hard all week.

IM Football Opens; Both Leagues Set

Intramural football got underway last Thursday as Alpha Gamma Phi squared off against Alpha Phi Omega and Marina Hall faced Milford Hall.

Two leagues of five teams have been entered in this year's play. The "A" league is made up of fraternities and the "B" division is composed of independents and residence halls. Each team will play every other club in their league twice, with the winners of each division meeting for the championship.

Joe Albany and Tim Ryan, who are co-ordinators of the IM set-up, have announced that all games will be played at Barnum Field, Seaside Park.

ALONG PARK PLACE

by Andy Demotzes

The so-called "Sunday Socials" given by Jan Golden, Randi Forst and Ann Joshia at their apartment on Park Avenue are growing bigger and better every week, or so it seems.

These affairs started as a small gathering of kids on Sundays, and have turned out to be good sized parties. All kinds of people are there, from Alumni to instructors.

Two weeks ago Mr. Fenner, of the Economics Department, was among the group, and last week Mr. William "The Continental" DiSiero honored the group with his presence. Everyone had a good time and perhaps this will help to point out that instructors and students CAN meet as social equals — and enjoy themselves to boot.

Beta Gamma held their first social tea of the school season last week in Alumni Hall and from all reports, they're still trying to give away all the cake they had left over. If the girls come up with some pledging ideas like the ones last year, beware. Be prepared for anything to happen when the BG appear in all their glory.

Former UB football player Ray Hirth has just returned from Bermuda where he was playing ball for an army team. A few weeks after he left for the Army, Ray pinned Fones graduate Lorrie Lechus. Lorrie is working for the City of Bridgeport in the public schools, and still comes to our campus daily to pick up her sister Shirley, a sophomore in the Fones School.

Scollay Square in Boston was the scene, after the Brandeis game, where one of our own students was mistaken for "Lola", stripper from New York.

Not only did someone insist that this poor girl was Lola, but he dedicated "Night and Day" to her as well. So far I haven't been able to find who the girl is, but if there's someone around here who can be mistaken for a stripper, I'd like to meet her.

Miscellaneous . . . Sue Rosner and June Fried, of Linden Hall, have come up with a new theme song for the girls here at UB. Ask them to sing it for you sometime; but make sure no one else is listening. . . Barbara Blitzer considering moving in with Jan and Ran at their Park Avenue apartment. . . What's with Danny Leeson walking around school with that crazy white jacket? Is he the man in the white coat people have been telling me about? . . . Charlie Smith goes into the army soon. . . Corky Cellar, home on leave from the navy, had a post-game party at his house last Saturday night.
